

TELL SALESFORCE: DROP THE CBP CONTRACT

Salesforce powers the Unified Immigration Portal, which enables information sharing between ICE, CBP (Customs Border Protection), and other enforcement agencies. The system uses AI to facilitate the detentions and deportations tearing our communities apart. This contract is worth less than 0.1% of Salesforce's annual revenue and dropping it will not impact Salesforce's bottom line.

HERE'S WHAT YOU CAN DO

Salesforce Employees: Talk to your leaders and email Suzanne DiBianca, Executive Vice President & Chief Impact Officer: "No tech for state violence. Drop the CBP Contract." Then share this flyer with your team, tape it to the fridge, slack it, make some noise!

Salesforce Users: Reach out to your Salesforce contact and tell them to drop CBP or risk losing your business. **Find template emails at snatchforce.tech

Harjit Kaur

Harjit is a 73-year-old grandmother of five who has lived in the East Bay for more than 30 years. She worked for 20 years as a seamstress at Sari Palace in Berkeley and has become a mother figure in the Sikh community. On September 8th, ICE arrested her during a routine check-in. She told her family from ICE detention in Bakersfield "I would rather die than be in this facility. May God just take me now." Harjit was deported to India.
